

SOME COUNTY OFFICIALS WILL GET PAY RAISE

Salaries of sheriff, district attorney and county commissioners in Adams county will be increased next January by a series of measures passed by the 1947 legislature and signed today by Governor Duff.

The measures, introduced in the final days of the session, and passed finally in the last week, set these new salary scales for the key county officials:

Sheriff, $3,300, an increase of $300; district attorney, $1,980, an increase of $180; county commissioners, $1,100, an increase of $100. County commissioners will receive an additional $800 as institutional district directors. This amount is unchanged.

The salary of the district attorney is based on population, and presumably Adams county would be computed on the basis of slightly under 40,000 population, the figure at the last federal census.

One bill increases the fees of registers of wills in counties of the fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth classes where no salary is established by law.

Incumbents Do Not Benefit
Salary increases applicable to Adams county are for counties of the seventh class. Adams is one of 15 counties in this classification.

In counties of the third, fourth, fifth and sixth classes, the salary increases also apply to other elected offices, among them coroner, prothonotary, clerk of courts, register and recorder, treasurer, jury commissioners, auditors, etc.

The salary increases, will not apply to any of the present office holders affected, unless they run this fall and are re-elected. Thus far none of them has announced his candidacy. The terms of Sheriff J. E. Millhimes, District Attorney J. Francis Yake, Jr., and Commissioners George P. Taylor, J. Arthur Boyd and Quintin D. Rebert expire at the end of the year.

Woman Released On Recognizance Bond

Genevieve Helstand, Manchester, Pa., arrested by United States Marshal William L. Capello, Harrisburg, Tuesday, on a warrant issued here by United States Commissioner Daniel E. Teeter, was released on her own recognizance bond of $1,000 on that date for appearance at a hearing later on a charge of uttering and passing an altered and forged U. S. treasury check payable to Thomas M. Hollingshead, York.

Miss Helstand was employed by Mr. Hollingshead as housekeeper at his home in York at the time of the alleged offense. She is on parole to the Adams county clerk of courts on a larceny charge for the theft of jewelry and other articles from a Conewago township home. She served part of a 30-to-60 day jail sentence here before being paroled.

LAY 5,000 FEET OF NEW SEWERS; BUILD STREETS

Borough employees, under the direction of Borough Engineer LeRoy H. Winebrenner, have laid close to 5,000 feet of new sewer line in Gettysburg in recent weeks, repaired streets, oiled others, re-painted traffic and parking lines and the borough's parking meters, completed the annual cleanup, in addition to regular maintenance work, and are now engaged in building new streets, a survey today showed.

Under way at the present time, but held up temporarily today by the rain, is the construction of Reservoir street, authorized by the borough council last year. When this is completed, the street department employees will begin the construction of Johns street, Mr. Winebrenner said.

Battling Mosquitoes
The battle against the mosquitoes will be resumed as soon as weather permits, also, Mr. Winebrenner said. He will assign a man to spray all the pools of stagnant water within the borough with oil. Running water, such as the Tiber, except where stagnant water collects, will not be sprayed.

A survey has already been made, which has revealed that there are numerous places in the borough where water collects and stands, and where mosquitoes breed. These will be the spots to get attention of the sprayer.

Patching Streets
In addition to painting the parking meters and numbering them, workmen have also re-marked the white parking lines and the red lines designating no-parking signs. New signs, ordered by the council, have been received and placed.

Most of the street patching work has been done, although a small amount remains, Mr. Winebrenner said. Several cinder streets, East and West Lincoln avenue, Railroad street, Hay street, the road leading to the sewer plant and a parking lot on West Middle street, just off Baltimore street, have been oiled.

New sewer lines have been laid in Steinwehr avenue extended, Railroad street, Johns and Highland streets and West Lincoln leading to the Inductive Equipment corporation's plant. Two jobs remain to be done—a new sewer line for the American Legion home, and a sewer for the Gilbert building project on South Franklin street.

Russia Is Called Huge Moving Glacier

Washington, June 26 (P)—Eric Johnston, president of the Motion Picture association, today described Russia as "a huge glacier, moving steadily from east to west, smothering and pulverizing whatever may lie in its path."

He declared the policy of the Soviet Union has raised the question whether this is "another ice age on the way, and this time made by man instead of by nature."

Unification Bill Suddenly Advanced

Washington, June 26 (P)—A surprise end run maneuvered the Army-Navy Unification Bill into position today for possible passage before Congress quits for the summer.

The flanking movement carried the measure around a group of the House Expenditures Committee members who wanted to continue hearings indefinitely.

PLANTS CLOSE FOR VACATION ALL NEXT WEEK

It will be vacation time for most of the industrial workers of Gettysburg next week, generally referred to as Independence Day week. The custom over a period of years here has been to close during the July 4th week to give employees a vacation and to make changes or improvements to the buildings.

The furniture factories will close from Friday evening until the morning of July 7.

The Gettysburg Silk Throwing plant will be closed from 10 a. m. Saturday morning until 6 a. m. July 7.

The Adams County Novelty Company will close July 3 and reopen July 14.

The Victor Products Corporation will continue to operate with whatever force wishes to work. It was explained that the firm has a number of back orders to fill and will remain in operation for those who wish to work. Those who do not will take their regular vacation.

The Inductive Equipment Corporation "can't afford to stop" because of the number of back orders. It will also operate on July 4.

Three of the four garment factories will close from June 27 to July 7. The fourth had not determined today whether it will close.

Plan Mid-Summer Communion Sunday

The mid-summer celebration of the Holy Communion will be held at Trinity Evangelical Reformed church Sunday at 8 a. m. and at 10:30 a. m. Miss Alice Snyder will preside at the organ and play as a prelude "Communion" by Faulkes and as a postlude "Sortie Festivo" by Boslet.

The $20,000 campaign visitors will give reports on their visitation among the membership. The results will be tabulated at the regular Consistory meeting to be held Tuesday evening.

The service preparatory to the Holy Communion will be held Friday evening at 7:45 o'clock. The three church choirs will be in charge of the music, with the Senior choir singing the anthem. Mrs. A. Z. Rogers will be the guest organist, substituting for Miss Alice Snyder who will be out of town.

Jerusalem, June 26 (P)—Officials of two Arab cities which the United Nations Palestine committee is to visit Saturday issued a call today for general strikes on that day, but their decision—to emphasize an Arab boycott of the committee's probe—was not unanimous.

The strikes were called in Tul-karm and Nabulus. However, Nabulus' mayor, Suleiman Bey Toukan, told reporters: "I will not be dictated to. I shall greet the delegates and welcome them in the traditional hospitality of our city."

Truman Vetoes Controversial Bill On Wool Price Control

Washington, June 26 (P)—President Truman today vetoed the wool price support bill because he said it would have "an adverse effect on our international relations."

The measure would have continued government prices on wool at present levels and authorized the President to boost tariffs or restrict imports if foreign wool or wool products pushed down domestic prices.

"The enactment of a law providing for additional barriers to the importation of wool at the very moment when this government is taking the leading part in a United Nations conference at Geneva" to reduce trade barriers "would be a tragic mistake," Mr. Truman said.

He added in a message to Congress: "It would be a blow to our leadership in world affairs."

"It would be interpreted around the world as a first step on that same road to economic isolationism down which we and other countries traveled after the first World War with such disastrous consequences."

"I cannot approve such an action."

The veto was the third major one this congressional session.

He previously had vetoed a tax reduction bill and the Taft-Hartley labor bill.

Will Attend LIBRARY MEET

John H. Knickerbocker, librarian at Gettysburg college, leaves Friday for San Francisco where he will attend the 66th annual convention of the American Library association.

He will make the round trip by plane.

Mr. Knickerbocker will attend the convention in three capacities. He will be the councilman for the Pennsylvania Library association, chairman of the Pennsylvania committee on federal relations and chairman of the membership committee for Pennsylvania of the American Library association.

The theme of the convention is "Moratorium on Trivia."

The local librarian will attend a meeting of the college librarians on the campus of the University of California, at Berkeley, Calif., July 1 and on the campus of Leland Stanford university, July 2 at Palo Alto. The convention opens Sunday evening with a nationwide broadcast of a symphony concert from the civic opera house in San Francisco.

Mr. Knickerbocker said that one of the principal speakers will be Cardinal Tisserant, librarian at the Vatican, who has been in this country for several weeks.

Many librarians from South American countries will attend the convention.

Curley Is Ordered To Serve Sentence

Washington, June 26 (P)—Mayor James M. Curley of Boston lost today his appeal for suspension of a six to 18 months jail sentence on mail fraud charges, and must serve it.

Denying the appeal, Justice James M. Proctor said "I regard the case as ended as far as the court is concerned."

"I think he (Curley) should be committed today."

The judge denied a plea of defense attorneys that the 72-year-old mayor be given a few days to clear up pressing municipal matters.

Curley, the judge declared, can settle the handling of any immediate city matters "with his keepers."

Defense attorneys told the court that a jail sentence at this time might well have a "fatal termination," but Proctor was unmoved.

Say New Tax Bill Has Wider Support

Washington, June 26 (P)—Reports circulated on Capitol Hill today that informal polls show a two-thirds majority of both House and Senate in favor of enacting the rejuvenated $4,000,000,000 tax slash bill.

These reports were accompanied by widely voiced speculation that only a Senate filibuster could stop the tax measure—changed to make the cuts effective next January 1 instead of this July 1—if the Republicans choose to call for another showdown.

Appropriations Committee Is Asking House Budget Slash

Washington, June 26 (P)—The house appropriations committee recommended today that the legislative establishment do some cutting on its own budget for the fiscal year 1948.

It sent to the house floor a $55,057,505 appropriation bill to finance the legislative establishment for the year beginning July 1. The total is $21,095,572, or 27.7 per cent, below budget estimates and $7,223,690, or 11.6 per cent, under current fiscal year funds.

The cut is larger than the committee has recommended for some other federal agencies, although not the largest to date.

More than half the slash affects the government printing office. The committee recommended that the GPO's working capital fund be trimmed from $20,000,000 to $10,000,000

Flowers is an "old regular," with service dating from August, 1928 to January 1, 1947. He served 18 months overseas in World War II and has two battle stars.

He has a wife, three sons and a daughter. During the war he served as security and intelligence agent overseas.

All of it will be the latest in military equipment, some developed since the last war and never used in combat. In addition to army vehicles of the latest types, the troop will receive considerable radar and radio equipment.

House To Decide On Refugee Care

Washington, June 26 (P)—The House decides today whether to permit United States participation in the international refugee organization for the care of 900,000 Europeans made homeless by the war.

Unanimously backed by the House Foreign Affairs committee and already approved by the Senate, the measure would fix the United States' share of cost in the new organization at $73,500,000—or approximately 45 per cent of its operating expenses.

Thank Donors To Chinese Relief

Although the Adams county campaign for funds for the United Service to China Relief fell far short of its goal of $2,000, its leaders here today thanked contributors, and urged that others who have not yet sent in their contributions "do so at once."

"Even though we have not reached our goal, I sincerely believe a strong foundation has been laid which will hold the interest of our people during coming years, when we hope for greater achievements," the Rev. George Stoneback, Fairfield, chairman of the drive said.

Urges Integration Of Air Forces Of American Countries

Washington, June 26 (P)—Lt. Gen. Hoyt S. Vandenberg, deputy commanding general of the Army Air Forces, said today the "peace and security" of North and South America depends upon a "complete integration of effort of the air forces of all the countries."

He urged the House Foreign Affairs Committee to approve legislation authorizing the United States to cooperate with the other Western Hemisphere nations in a military standardization program which would include supplying them with arms.

"Such a program," Vandenberg declared in a prepared statement, "it especially necessary from the viewpoint of the Army Air Forces due to the tremendous mobility of the air arm. The range and speed of the modern airplane is such that a combined air force can be moved rapidly to any point in the hemisphere."

"However, to assure safe and effective deployment, it is necessary that we have common aids to navigation, similar communication facilities, like weather reporting procedures, corresponding standards of maintenance of our air bases, and similar provisions for maintenance of our airplanes at strategic points in the hemisphere."

INVITE FRUIT GROWERS IN 4 STATES TO BIG FIELD DAY FETE

The Fruit Growers Field Day, sponsored by the Adams County Fruit Growers association, at the South Mountain Fair Grounds, July 30, today took on the aspects of a state and sectional affair, with invitations going out from the office of M. T. Hartman, county farm agent, to fruit growers in Pennsylvania, Maryland, West Virginia and New Jersey.

Invitations are also being extended to leading experimental station and state college experts in these states and New York state. The invitations to growers are being extended through letters to the county agents in fruit-raising counties in the four states.

Officers of the association and the Field Day committee, at a meeting Wednesday night in the office of the Biglerville Packing and Distributing company, voted to ask Dr. James Hamilton, chief of research plant pathology, New York State Experimental station, Geneva, N. Y., to attend the field day and make a brief address.

Invite Specialists

Invitations will also be extended to members of the staff of the school of agriculture, State College, and the Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture, Mr. Hartman said, and to A. F. Vierheller, fruit extension specialist, Maryland; Arthur J. Farley, extension specialist, New Jersey, and Edward Gould, in charge of the West Virginia experiment station at Kearneysville, W. Va.

"The field day is being planned as an education feature, and special attention is directed to the fact that there will be no concessions operated," Mr. Hartman said.

Machinery, implement and supply dealers are being contacted to exhibit machinery and supplies at the field day, and give demonstrations. Included in the displays will be orchard sprayers, orchard implements, orchard spray materials, orchard supplies, such as tools, containers and ladders. Fruit processors of Adams county are also being invited to place exhibits.

Open for Exhibits

"Any one interested in participating in the field day and entering exhibits should contact the advertising and contact committee," Hartman said.

Glenn Slaybaugh, of Biglerville, another member of the committee, was unable to be present.

Sub-Committees

The committee decided that the field day will be held July 30, rain or shine, with no postponement date. Mr. Hartman said the nature of the exhibits made it necessary to hold it one day, irrespective of the weather.

Sub-committees in charge of the affair are:

Grounds: Mr. Hartman, Mr. Oyler and Robert Lott.

Advertising and contact: William Lott, Mr. Tyson, Mr. Heacock, Mr. Slaybaugh and Mr. Greist.

TO INVESTIGATE CARNIVAL

STANDARD ARMS IS ADVOCATED BY EISENHOWER

By DEWITT MACKENZIE (AP Foreign Affairs Analyst)

Standardization of arms among the countries of the western hemisphere as a measure of mutual security is being made a matter of vital urgency by the heads of America's fighting services.

General Dwight D. Eisenhower, Army Chief of Staff, emphasized the need of speed yesterday in testifying before the Foreign Affairs committee of the house of representatives which is holding hearings on President Truman's proposal to effect such standardization. Eisenhower declared that danger would threaten both north and south America, and he was emphatic in saying that now is the time to organize for defense.

Secretary of the Navy Forrestal and Fleet Admiral Chester W. Nimitz, chief of naval operations, also supported legislation to authorize the U. S. A. to aid in standardization. They said if legislation was enacted the navy proposes to trade new warships to Latin-American countries for obsolete vessels.

Furnish Arms, Training

One of the most telling points at the hearing was made by both Eisenhower and Nimitz—that if the United States doesn't furnish arms and training to the rest of the western hemisphere, some other countries will. Secretary of State Marshall and Secretary of War Patterson previously had said the same thing.

It was left to Eisenhower to make the disquieting disclosure that other countries already are trying to sell arms to Latin America. He declined to amplify.

Of course the point of wholesale standardization is that the United States would be the arsenal for the entire western hemisphere in event of an attack directed against both continents. No other nation is equipped industrially to cope with such an emergency. Any nation which wasn't a party to the standardization program would be unable to defend itself, and therefore would be a weak link in the chain.

Cooperate With Canada

Eisenhower said that complete cooperation between the United States and Canada is imperative. This is true because in the event of another war one of the first moves of the enemy would be an air attack on the industrial centers near the Great Lakes.

Military experts learned invaluable lessons regarding standardization during both World Wars. There were times when lack of coordination between Allies like England and France was damaging. The same was true among some of the German Allies, but in both conflicts Germany had a considerable degree of standardization among its followers.

Hitler achieved this through the simple expedient of forcing small countries to accept outmoded German armament in barter trade for the foodstuff which the fatherland needed. Once a country was equipped with German arms, it had to secure ammunition and replacements from the fuhrer's arsenals.

Of course it takes more than standardization to turn the trick. You must have resources, and that's what America still has.

Skeptical About Mysterious Discs In Washington Sky

Pendleton, Ore., June 26 (AP) — Army and CAA spokesmen expressed skepticism today over a report of nine mysterious objects—big as airplanes — whizzing over Western Washington at 1,200 miles an hour.

Kenneth Arnold, a flying Boise, Idaho, businessman who reported seeing them, clung, however, to his story of the shiny, flat objects, each as big as a DC-4 passenger plane, racing over Washington's Cascade mountains with a peculiar weaving motion "like a tail of a kite."

An army spokesman in Washington, D. C., commented, "as far as we know, nothing flies that fast except a V-2 rocket, which travels at about 3,500 miles an hour — and that's too fast to be seen."

10 SHIPYARDS SHUT DOWN BY MARINE STRIKE

New York, June 26 (AP)—Repair and construction work in ten shipyards, nine of them owned by the Bethlehem Steel company, shut down today as the industrial union of Marine and Shipbuilding Workers (CIO) called more than 40,000 repair and construction workers on strike.

The strike against the Bethlehem yards, which were building or overhauling more than 60 vessels, was called one minute after contracts expired at midnight. The Atlantic Basin Iron Works in Brooklyn joined the strike at 5 a. m. (EST) today.

Picket lines were established at the yards a short time after the strike deadlines but the union agreed to permit maintenance and security staffs to work.

Expected To Spread

While union officials scheduled further conferences today with the Todd shipyards corporation and the Federal Shipbuilding and Dry Dock Corporation, they have predicted the strike would spread early next week to include all yards, except navy, on the east and gulf coasts. The yards employ more than 100,000 men.

John Green, union president, announced failure of negotiations late yesterday after a two-hour conference with J. M. Larkin, Bethlehem vice president in charge of industrial relations, and W. H. Collins, vice president in charge of shipbuilding.

Green said the company had made no counter offer on any of the union's demands, which included a 13-cent hourly wage increase and other contract benefits.

Larkin said the present base rate of $1.38 for mechanics, boosted to an average of $1.53 by "overtime, incentive pay and other factors," was to blame for a current decline in American shipbuilding. He said that Bethlehem's employment had dropped from a wartime peak of 182,000 to 12,000 currently, and that the company could make no offer that would increase costs.

CIO DEMANDS US CHECK CLIMBING LIVING COSTS

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH

Washington, June 26 (AP)—The CIO asked Congress today for immediate action to prevent "collapse of our economy." It declared that thus far "there has not been a single step" to check rising costs. Instead, the CIO contended, Congress has "worked in the opposite direction." The labor organization urged immediate creation of a federal investigation board with the job of shedding light "upon the unwarranted levels of many prices." It said that "by the use of public pressure and exposure of profiteering we may be able to force lower prices."

And, the CIO added, if "increased foreign demands (for food clothing and machinery) and crop failure continue x x x this will require that we re-establish price control and rationing program."

Cites Flood Damage

The CIO blast was laid down by Emil Rieve, a CIO vice president, in a statement prepared for the joint congressional committee on President Truman's economic report. This group, which also came in for sharp criticism by Rieve, is studying suggestions on how to stabilize the nation's economy.

Senator Flanders (R-Vt) suggested that President Truman urge voluntary meat rationing to help check what the lawmaker called a "really serious" living cost spiral.

The Vermont Senator told a reporter that flood damage to the Midwest corn crop apparently has smashed hopes that food prices might turn downward soon. Instead, he said, they almost certainly will go up.

Flanders rejected as "impractical" a suggestion that it might become necessary to restore wartime price controls plus voluntary rationing.

Sherrystown, and three brothers, Calvin Small, York; Harry Small, Abbottstown, and Curvin Small, Hanover.

Funeral services conducted at 8:30 a. m. Friday from the Funk residence with a requiem high mass at 9 a. m. in St. Vincent's Catholic church. The Rev. Mark P. McElwee will be celebrant. Interment in St. Joseph's Catholic cemetery.

Seek To Clarify New Property Law

Harrisburg, June 26 (AP)—Attorney General T. McKeen Chidsey said today he "would be glad" to obtain opinions of state legal authorities on a proposed law establishing the community property principle in Pennsylvania.

The measure, passed in the closing hours of the legislative session and awaiting action by Governor James H. Duff, would permit a husband and wife to split the family income and file separate federal income tax reports.

Chidsey said that the Justice department so far, has not prepared an opinion for the governor on the legislation. He added that he has received comments from a number of attorneys on the effect the proposed law would have on existing statutes regulating real estate inheritances and trusts. He withheld comment on the nature of advice the attorneys gave.

Selective Recovery On Stock Market

New York, June 26 (AP)—Oils and special issues led the stock market on another selective recovery push today although the cloudy labor picture kept many potential purchasers in neutral territory.

With thousands of coal miners idle in protest against the new labor law, together with an east coast shipping strike, Wall street exhibited considerable caution. Short covering and buying for investment yields served as the principal trend prop. Oils responded to brightening earnings prospects and a batch of good income statements aided rails.

Irregularity persisted until just before midday when prices generally began to stiffen. Initial losses were erased in a number of cases near the fourth hour and gains of fractions to a point or so predominated. Dealings slowed after a noon flurry.

Believe Crew May Have Violated Orders

Shelby, O., June 26 (AP)—New York Central railroad officials today sought to learn if their St. Louis special was violating caution orders when its twin locomotives jumped the track and caused the death of six, possibly seven, persons last night.

A railroad official, who declined to be quoted by name, said papers ordering "caution" through the area were found on the body of an engineer.

BARUCH NAMES U. S. ESSENTIALS

Washington, June 26 (AP)—Bernard M. Baruch called today for a "work or fight" law applicable to men and women alike as one of the "minimum" essentials to mobilizing America's "full might" in the event of a future war.

The white-haired adviser to presidents in two world conflicts declared, however, that while this country faces a future that is "unrestful" it is "not alarming."

"I see no war with Russia as an immediate threat," he asserted in an address prepared for the first graduating class of the Armed Forces' Industrial college.

But Baruch cautioned that "with the new instrumentalities of mass destruction, we will not have time to improvise" should war come again.

Accordingly, he said, this country must be ready to mobilize its full might, "militarily, economically and spiritually."

To accomplish that, he said, (a) there must be universal military training, (b) "all men and women (must be) subject to mobilization with a work-or-fight clause" and (c) "surveys must be made of underground industrial establishments, refuge for civilians and dispersal of populations."

NIMITZ WARNS ABOUT DEFENSE

Washington, June 26 (AP) — Fleet

Admiral Chester W. Nimitz said today the United States must not assume it is the only nation capable of developing the guided missile into the weapon of the future. He tossed out a plain hint that he was referring to Russia.

"We must not forget that other nations have equal, if not greater, access to the wealth of German information, equipment, facilities and trained technicians than we have," Nimitz said.

"To assume that they will merely catalogue this information for future reference and not exploit it vigorously is fallacious and dangerous."

The admiral did not identify the nations in his statement prepared for a House Armed Services Subcommittee, but Russia has been the big rival of the United States in obtaining the help of arms experts from occupied Germany.

"Failure to take adequate steps now to explore this new field of weapons and their uses," Nimitz said, "would parallel our relatively slow development of the airplane and our tardy appreciation of its potentialities as an instrument of war. It is evident that such failure can be most detrimental to national security."

"There is no doubt if war comes again the nation leading in the guided missile field will have an initial and perhaps decisive superiority."

Assembly Re-elects Enrico de Nicola

Rome, June 26 (AP)—Italy's constituent assembly re-elected Enrico de Nicola its provisional president of the Italian Republic today, less than 24 hours after he resigned, saying that he was in poor health.

He received 405 of the 431 votes cast, far more than three-fifths necessary to elect.

"There was no immediate indication as to whether he would accept."

De Nicola's message to the assembly yesterday said his health "impedes me absolutely from exercising my functions any longer." He is 69 years old.

Crazy Hat Wins Refrigerator!

One of those "Breakfast in the morning" radio shows came to Capitol City last week, and Sarrah Carey won first prize for wearing the craziest hat in the audience. It was a full-sized refrigerator! (The prize, not the hat.)

"Glad them hats of hers paid off at last," says Ed, treating the whole thing like a joke. But you could see he was proud of Sarrah.

TRIO OF GIANT SLUGGERS HEAD FOR NEW MARK

By JOE REICHLER

Associated Press Sports Writer

Johnny Mize, Walker Cooper and Willard Marshall, the thumping trio of the New York Giants have been slugging enemy pitchers at such a terrific rate that veteran observers have begun to compare them with the famous old murderers' row of the New York Yankees.

But even the Yankee wrecking crew of Babe Ruth, Lou Gehrig and Tony Lazzeri, despite its tremendous slugging prowess, could not accomplish what the 1947 Giant trio is heading for.

At their current pace, Mize, Cooper and Marshall may finish one, two, three in the National league home run and runs batted in championship race. No other trio ever achieved such a feat.

Mize, Cooper and Marshall drove in all the Giants' runs yesterday in their 9-3 victory over the Cubs in Chicago. Each walloped a home run, with Cooper knocking in four runs, Mize three and Marshall two.

Brooks Top Pirates
Rookies Harry Taylor and Johnny Jorgensen starred for the Dodgers who defeated the Pirates 6-2, in Pittsburgh for the 21st setback in the Bucs' last 26 games. Taylor limited the Pirates to seven hits in gaining his fifth victory while Jorgensen drove home five runs with a single, double and triple against his former mate, Kirby Higbe.

Frank Shea, the Yankees' sensational rookie righthander spun his third shutout of the season when he limited the Cleveland Indians to three hits as the Yankees won 3-0 at night. Billy Johnson and Joe DiMaggio, staging a merry race for the runs batted in leadership, knocked in the Yankee runs to delight a tremendous Yankee stadium turnout of 60,000 cash customers who boosted the Yankee home attendance over the million mark—1,018,082—in 31 games. It was Shea's ninth win against two defeats. The win increased the Yankees first place lead in the American league to two and a half games.

Lose In Ninth

Scoring four runs in the last half of the ninth, the Cincinnati Reds came from behind to nip the Phillies 9-8 in a thriller at Cincinnati.

Detroit's slipping Tigers snapped a 10-game losing streak by scoring a 4-2 victory over the second place Boston Red Sox, but reverted to their losing ways as the Sox took the second game of the doubleheader in Boston 4-3.

The third place Athletics turned back the St. Louis Browns in a night game at Philadelphia winning 4-2 behind Dick Fowler. The former no-hit pitcher needed relief from Russ Christopher, however, Fred Sanford was the loser.

Washington and Chicago in the American league and Boston and St. Louis in the National were not scheduled.

Eastern League

The Albany Senators, superseded by Scranton in the Eastern league's second place, have a chance to regain the runner-up spot tonight by beating the leading Utica Blue Sox.

The Sox trounced the Senators, 6-2, last night in the second of a three-game series at the New York state capital. The Scranton Miners defeated the Williamsport Tigers, 3-2, and Elmira and Wilkes-Barre split a doubleheader. Rain postponed the Binghamton-Hartford game.

Wilkes-Barre blanked Elmira, 4-0, in the opener at Wilkes-Barre, with Ray Girdley holding the visitors to two hits. But Girdley gave up four runs in the ninth inning of the nightcap, when he took the mound in a relief role, and Elmira chalked up an 8-6 win.

Today's games: Utica at Albany, Elmira at Wilkes-Barre, Binghamton at Hartford, 2, and Williamsport at Scranton.

INVESTIGATION IN RING DEATH OF JIMMY DOYLE

Cleveland, June 26 (AP)—Declaring he did not want "a cloud on Ohio boxing," Coroner Samuel J. Gerber today promised a complete investigation of the death of Jimmy Doyle, 22-year-old Californian who never regained consciousness after being knocked out by welterweight champion Ray (Sugar) Robinson in the eighth round of a title fight at the arena here Tuesday night.

"A great deal of unholy pressure has been put on me to divert this investigation," said Dr. Gerber. "I am going to make a complete investigation. I will talk to anyone who had anything to do with this."

Dr. Gerber did not elaborate on what he meant by pressure.

Called "Evasive"

The coroner opened his probe last night by questioning Robinson, his manager, George Gaipford, and two other handlers of the champion.

Robinson was accused during questioning by Dr. Gerber of being "evasive." So was Gaipford.

"This is an unfortunate incident, and you are not to blame," the coroner said to Robinson. "But I want to know Doyle's condition as observed by laymen. And I want to arrive at a conclusion without pressure from any body. I don't want a cloud on Ohio boxing."

His questioning led along three major lines:

"Was Doyle really fit and the right opponent for the welterweight champion of the world?"

Died In 17 Hours

"Was Doyle's earlier brain injury shown in paralysis of one eyelid or other parts of his body?"

"Was the floor of the ring properly padded?"

Robinson denied he thought Doyle an unworthy opponent. He denied having a voice in picking Doyle. He denied taking Doyle's injury last year into his fighting strategy.

Doyle was knocked out when he stepped into a stiff left hook and died of a brain injury 17 hours later in Charity hospital.

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

Ann Arbor, June 26 (AP)—Probably it won't surprise you much, but Michigan expects to have a good football team next fall and Oklahoma expects to have a good basketball team.

The catch is that they expect to be good even by their standards, which are very high.

As of now, the Michigan grid squad shows only a couple of weak spots—at center and tackle—and it has at least five guys who would make good fullbacks.

One of them, Dan Dworsky, likely will be converted into a center, which should make the Wolverines very tough on defense.

Still they're not looking forward with any great glee to the Minnesota game, for the reports are that Bernie Bierman will have plenty of the stuff that breaks the scales.

Oklahoma's basketballers won't appear in Madison Square garden this year, due to a dispute on dates, but they'll warm up against such teams as Ohio State, Holy Cross, Wisconsin, and DePaul.

Coach Bruce Drake, who is here with his golfers, confides: "We'll be good, but I won't say it to you fellows. I'll cry like heck to you."

FAIR WARNING

Joel Hunt, Louisiana state assistant coach and one-time Cardinal baseball player wants a certain unnamed major league scout to know he's no longer welcome at LSU.

"It's a personal matter with me now," says Hunt. "Since I knew him, I introduced him around and he said he wouldn't bother the boys. First thing I knew he had signed and just about wrecked our basketball and baseball teams. And they're kids who never will be more than minor leaguers—if they're really outstanding we encourage them to get the money when they can. If that fellow ever comes around again, I'll throw him off the campus myself."

Emmitsburg went into a tie with Orrtanna and New Oxford for fourth place in the Adams County league by defeating Gettysburg 6-3 on the Emmitsburg field Wednesday evening.

Paced by Kennell, Paidakovich and T. Combs, who collected 10 of the 12 hits off Sheetz and Snyder, the Marylanders piled up a 4-0 lead before Gettysburg tallied in the seventh.

A single by T. Combs, an error and an outfield fly gave Emmitsburg a run in the second. A pair of errors and single by Kennell produced another Emmitsburg tally in the fifth.

A fielder's choice, singles by Paidakovich and Kennell, and a triple by T. Combs was good for another pair of Emmitsburg runs in the seventh.

Gettysburg tabbed a run in the last of the seventh on Rohrbaugh's single, an infield error, a base on balls to March and an outfield fly.

In the eighth the locals pushed over two more runs on a walk to F. Hankey and successive hits by Rohrbaugh and Anzengruber.

A double by Zimmerman and singles by Paidakovich, Kennell and T. Combs sent Emmitsburg's final pair of runs over the plate in the ninth.

RED ROSES SNAP OUT OF CELLAR

(By The Associated Press)

Lancaster's Red Roses today were out of the interstate league cellar for the first time in nearly a month.

The Red Roses snapped a seven-game losing streak last night and simultaneously shoved Sunbury into the basement by defeating the now last-place Yankees in a doubleheader, 6-4 and 9-5.

Harrisburg, meantime, cut Allentown's first place lead to three games with a twin victory over the Canaries. The Senators, aided by three home runs, edged Allentown 12-11 in the 10-inning opener, then copped the nightcap 10-3.

The second game was called at the end of eight innings because of the Philadelphia curfew law which forbids

Today's Talk

GROWING PAINS

Grief and suffering are allotted to us all, either bodily or mentally. It is the growth that results, and the weathering of character which make up for all endured. We gain ruggedness of mind and body in the same manner as do all the things in Nature. They face all events and circumstances, and survive the better for it, and so can we.

When we become dissatisfied, at times, even disgusted with ourselves, that is the sign of growth at work. As the poet Lowell has said, "Only those are crowned and sainted, who with grief have been acquainted." It's the modeling process of character.

All along the route of life we are beset with obstacles. There is no smooth road for any of us. Discontent is evident where growing pains are at work. All great advances in civilization owe their growth to the divine discontent that is planted in every aspiring human being. The contended person sits still!

The ship at sea takes all manner of storms because it has been constructed for just this. It is the same with this body and mind of ours. The pains that occur are for test, for that growing process which culminates in strength and resourcefulness.

These growing pains create confidence and bring about a fullness of faith. We are all the better for them. Battle-scarred we may appear, but we will carry about with us the stamp of the heroic. Peace is but the aftermath of stress and struggle. Don't worry about the growing pains. They have a job to do for us all.

Better protest against ourselves than against our pains, for we are expected to become their master, and rise the higher because of them. Even unhappiness is a symptom of growing pains, which in time may bud unexpected happiness. Patience then becomes a welcomed virtue.

Where infinite pains are required to do an important job there are resulting back-aches, tired muscles, and both bodily and mental fatigue. But the triumph is the happy payoff!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "New Beginnings."

FLOODS HEAD FOR NEW HIGH MARKS IN WEST

(By The Associated Press)

Floods from swollen rivers and streams in parts of Iowa, Missouri and Nebraska appeared headed for near record crests today as workers labored through the night to halt the onrushing waters.

In Des Moines hundreds of families were evacuated from an area covering 63 square blocks of the Des Moines and Raccoon rivers, which join near the heart of the city, continued to rise. The Iowa capital city's business district was not immediately endangered by the floodwaters although the rivers were stretching into the residential area.

The rampaging Missouri river on the Iowa-Nebraska border spilled over farm lands as it continued to rise. Workmen battled to halt an other disastrous flood.

Between Rulo, in southeast Nebraska, and St. Louis, only 54 of 250 levees had withstood the relentless pounding of the high waters. Only two of the 49 levees in the Glasgow Mo., area remained intact.

A curfew was ordered in Des Moines last night, clearing the streets of all persons not engaged in attempting to control the Des Moines and Raccoon rivers. Workmen piled sandbags on dikes and plugged levees. Eight bridges over the two rivers were closed to traffic. An estimated 1,800 persons had been evacuated from their homes.

The Des Moines river stage early today was 26.37 feet, a foot below the record stage of 1903. At the Scott street bridge at the junction of the two rivers a crew of 60 men worked through the night erecting sandbag barriers.

To Protest Curbs On Free Expression

Washington, June 26 (AP)—Representatives of the press, radio, moving pictures, books and magazines are meeting today to discuss a proposal for united resistance against all curbs on free expression.

The suggestion for an "all-media committee" was made by Justin Miller, president of the National Association of Broadcasters, who issued invitations to the sessions here.

The NAB is fighting a radio bill introduced by Senator White (R-Me) on which the Senate Commerce committee is holding hearings. The association contends it would weaken the guarantees of free speech in the Federal Communications Act.

Stating that NAB would welcome support in its own fight, Robert K. Richards, public relations director, said the association is convinced that mass communication industries "have a common stake in preserving the constitutional guarantees."

Recover Boy's Body From Schuylkill

up Wed. the body of eight-year-old waters of the Schuylkill river gave Tues. evening to take a walk with David Henriksen as his heartbroken mother sobbed on the riverbank. Police and neighbors had searched the Fairmont park district and the river all night after the boy was reported missing by his mother, Mrs. Isabelle Henriksen. First warning the family had of the tragedy was the return of their little dog, Judy, whining and dragging her leash.

David had left home after dinner last evening to take a walk with the dog. Half hour later Judy came back alone, scratching at the door. Police were unable to explain how the boy fell into the river, whose waters are blackened by waste from upstate coal mines.

COAL STOPPAGE SLOWS MILLS AND RAILROADS

Pittsburgh, June 26 (AP)—Steel mills and railroads, feeling the effects of the four-day-old coal stoppage, began to lay off workers today as wildcat walkouts by the nation's miners appeared to gain rather than lose momentum.

Some of the 222,000 idle miners said they were jumping the gun on the 10-day mine vacation which starts at midnight tomorrow. But the majority were walking out in bitter protest against the Hartley-Taft labor law.

Railroads in Birmingham, Ala., began laying off trainmen on coal runs yesterday and a road official estimated several hundred workers would be affected within a week.

Alabama, where the walkouts first started on Monday, reported all of its 20,000 miners idle.

Youngstown Sheet & Tube Co., which banked six blast furnaces and nine open hearths, estimated 4,000 men would be idle by next Monday at its Youngstown plant and several hundreds at Chicago.

Carnegie-Illinois Steel Corp. took off the equivalent of one and a half blast furnace June 9 to save coke preparatory to the mine vacation, and banked three more furnaces yesterday. The company said no estimate of the idle could be made as yet.

The Federal Coal Mines Administration placed the tonnage loss yesterday at 1,189,119 tons, about half the daily normal output of 2,000,000 tons.

In Utah, Geneva Steel Co. was cutting production to conserve coal although the company reported it had the largest stockpile in its history. Half of the state's 4,000 miners were idle.

Pennsylvania led the list of 11 coal producing states in the number of idle with 64,200. West Virginia had nearly 49,000 out despite a work return by about 5,000 miners in the Morgantown area.

Kentucky counted 35,000 out; Illinois, 18,000; Virginia, 11,000; Tennessee, 5,000; Ohio, 10,933; Indiana, 6,721; Utah, 2,000 and Colorado, 184. Most of the idle were AFL-United Mine Workers in the soft coal fields but they included 3,200 AFL-Anthracite miners in eastern Pennsylvania and 1,700 members of the Progressive Mine Workers Union (Ind.) in Illinois.

The UMW, apparently, was making only scattered efforts to get the men back.

SPLIT OVER WAY TO DEAL WITH COAL STOPPAGE

By HAROLD W. WARD

Washington, June 26 (AP)—The No. 1 and No. 2 framers of the Taft-Hartley Labor Law in the House split sharply today over how to cope with John L. Lewis and the growing soft coal stoppage.

Rep. Hartley (R-N.J.), co-sponsor of the act placed on the books last Monday over President Truman's veto, lashed out at Lewis as a "rebellious and mutinous citizen."

He called for adding a whole new section to the law to deal with Lewis and the "challenge" of other union leaders.

Landis Urges "Giving In"

On the other hand, Rep. Landis (R-Ind.), second in command on the House Labor committee and a former miner, said he thinks the soft coal operators ought to "give in" to some of Lewis' contract demands in order to remove the threat of a full-fledged strike July 8.

That is the day the miners are due back at work after their 10-day vacation. This begins tomorrow midnight, but more than 200,000 have left work ahead of time. The vacation, plus a $100 cash payment, is called for under the government's contract with Lewis and his united mine workers.

However, the government's authority to operate the seized mines runs out next Monday, and with it the contract under which the pits have been operating since May, 1946.

Getting Nowhere

Lewis' 400,000 soft coal diggers don't work without a contract.

Negotiators for the industry in the north and west, representing 75 per cent of the bituminous output, appeared to be trying to revive the contract talks which were broken off about the time Congress sent the Taft-Hartley bill to Mr. Truman.

The northwest group conferred with UMW Vice-President John O'Leary but, according to some industry reports, complained they were getting nowhere.

These industry officials said Lewis is holding out for a 35-cent hourly wage increase, a 10-cent a ton royalty to replace the current 5-cent ante to his union welfare and retirement fund plus his other original demands.

Landis, however, told a reporter today he is convinced the contract deadlock could be broken if the op-

Says Principles Of Bill Of Rights Sound

Philadelphia, June 26 (AP)—N. W.

Prentiss, Jr., president of the Armstrong Cork Company, says Americans must adhere firmly to the fundamental principles of the Bill of Rights—justice, moderation, temperance, frugality and virtue, if the country is to preserve its system of popular self-government.

The principles on which men may associate themselves permanently to enjoy the blessings of liberty are firm and immutable, Prentiss told the annual convention of the American society of agricultural engineers last night.

"The price of freedom is fixed. And liberty must be bought and re-bought at the same price by every generation for itself," Prentiss, former president of the National Association of Manufacturers, declared.

erators would agree to: "A 5 cents a ton royalty for the welfare fund. A seven-hour day plus an hour's portal-to-portal (travel) time, instead of the present eight-hour day and an hour's portal time. The safety code the miners now have in their contract with the government."

"Of course," Landis added, "they would have to pay a decent wage, too, but the wage issue isn't much of a barrier."

ENCAMPMENT OF GIRL SCOUTS TO OPEN ON SUNDAY

Barre, Pa., June 26 (P)—Every-thing was set today for the arrival of 80 American Girl Scouts at Camp Barre for the first world encampment of Girl Scouts and Girl Guides in this country since 1937.

The camp, tucked away in the rolling woodlands of central Penn-sylvania, will play host to more than 100 girls, representing nearly 2,000,000 Girl Scouts and Girl Guides throughout the world.

The encampment will officially open Sunday with the arrival of representatives from 24 foreign countries, and will continue through July 16. It is being held in connection with the 35th anniversary of the founding of the Girl Scout movement.

The American contingent, includ-ing a delegate and alternates from each state and foreign possession, are arriving early to make last-minute preparations for the recep-tion of their sister scouts from abroad.

The theme of the conference will be "Friendship Builds a Better World," and will focus attention on the role of youth in the postwar world.

Mrs. Harry Truman, wife of the President, heads the list of promi-nent Americans who will address the conference. The date has not yet been set for her appearance.

The Pennsylvania delegate at the conference is Doris Jean Ganges, 17, of West Chester, and the delegates at large for the state include Ann Marie Owens, 17, Tyrone; Helen M. Young, 17, of Reedsburg, and Eleanor Morisay, 17, of Sharon.

East Berlin

East Berlin—Mrs. Melvin Altland R. 2, has been ill at her home, suf-fering with a nervous collapse with which she was stricken when a fire destroyed the barn at their property June 15. The Altlands bought the place this spring from Harry A. Laughman.

George E. Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis L. Smith, has been a surgical patient at a Baltimore hos-pital for several days having been removed there from the Hanover hospital where he was being treated for a double fracture of the skull sustained June 14 when he was struck on the head while attending to work. A delicate operation was ordered.

The Rev. and Mrs. Snyder Allen-man of the local Lutheran charge were hosts during the week at their Abbottstown parsonage to persons who acted as teachers during the re-cently concluded session of the an-nual Daily Vacation Bible school of East Berlin.

The Rev. G. W. Harlacher, elder of the Bermudian Church of the Brethren, and his wife, were hosts recently to the Home Builders class of the First Brethren Sunday school, York.

Nothing Stops Kane Burglars Nowadays

Kane, Pa., June 26 (P)—Burglars in these parts apparently carry wrecking bars.

Those who broke into the Elks club battered their way through nine doors and two windows, then went down the street and pried off a steel window to get into the Kane Fruit & Candy company.

They got $5 at the candy store. Elks club officials declined to discuss their loss.

GIVES REPORT ON LOVE LIFE OF THE WHALE

BY ARTHUR EDSON

Washington, June 26 (AP)—Dr. Raymond Gilmore, the government's expert on the love life of the whale, issued his eagerly awaited report today.

His verdict: Some have a lot. Some don't have any. It all de-pends.

Dr. Gilmore, biologist for the fish and wildlife service, made his report for the Smithsonian Institution after his trip with the Navy's Antarc-tic expedition.

Sad Reading For Bachelors

Bachelors everywhere will find the study sad reading.

It seems that sperm whales are polygamus. One or two whales of this species will collect a bunch of good looking cow whales and set up seakeeping in tropical or sub-tropical waters.

This leaves quite a few male whales with nothing much to do but go down to the Antarctic and sulk. Which they do.

"The Antarctic bulls," the Smith-sonian says, "Presumably are ani-mals which have been unable to find a place for themselves in harems."

"In many cases they may be old animals who have been ousted by stronger young bulls. For these the Antarctic waters serve as a sort of 'old bull's summer home'."

Unromantic View

The government takes a very un-romantic view of a whale suffering from unrequited love. As far as the government is concerned, a male whale which can't be caught by a female may as well be caught.

But a whaler can't make enough money catching just bachelor or di-vorced sperm whales. If he wants to fetch home the bacon, he must also fetch home some of the more valuable baleen whales.

The baleen isn't like the sperm whale. He takes only one wife, and he and the little lady go south for the summer.

It wouldn't take long, Dr. Gilmore thinks, for this species to become ex-tinct if it isn't protected.

Nearby Boys Meet Accidental Deaths

Harrisburg, June 26 (AP)—Two boys met death in accidents yester-day in the Harrisburg area.

Seven-year-old Ronald Rhine-smith died in a hospital of injuries suffered in an automobile accident near his home at nearby Hummelst-own. Chief of Police Samuel C. Wiestling said the child ran into the side of a moving car.

David Earl Rudy, 14, of nearby Penbrook drowned while swimming in Yellow Breeches creek near Mechanicsburg.

BOOVER DAM

Las Vegas, Nev. (P)—They're still a-guing over whether the great structure across the Colorado river shall be called Hoover dam or Boul-der dam, with one faction proposing that it be designated "Boover" dam as a compromise.

The Las Vegas Chamber of Com-merce is trying to remain neutral, and says Nevada road maps will de-signate it "Boulder dam (Hoover)."

Hollywood News

By BOB THOMAS

Hollywood (P) — Jimmy Cagney, who has made movies at a leisurely pace in the past few years, is get-ting down to work in earnest.

The Irishman is now performing in "Time of Your Life," and he plans to follow it in quick succession with "A Stray Lamb" and "A Lion Is In The Streets." And that isn't all. He is keeping his tap dancing in trim and plans to do another musical, his first since the wonderful "Yan-kee Doodle Dandy." He says it's about Irish gypsies in the U. S.

Also, the Cagney organization is planning pictures in which Jimmy won't appear. One is a western, "Always the Valiant," which Ronald Reagan wants to do.

Ingrid Bergman was back before the cameras, but it's for still pic-tures to advertise "Arch of Tri-umph." It was her first studio visit in nine months. Her comment: "Heavens, I could have had a baby in that time." . . . Other quote of the week comes from Frances Dee, now in "They Passed This Way" with husband Joel McCrea. She wants to do more pictures, but she smiled. "In the next one I'd like a younger leading man."

Burt Lancaster is set for "White Swamp" at RKO but the deal is held up pending results of his fight to escape his Hal Wallis contract. Meanwhile there is more trouble for Producer Wallis. Like Don DeFore, Kirk Douglas also wants a new deal

Estates Laws Of Pa. May Be Revamped

Harrisburg, June 26 (P)—Penn-sylvania's estates' laws were being studied today by the general as-sembly's joint state government commission with a view of revamp-ing some measures that have been on the statute books for more than 30 years.

A committee named by the com-mission planned a meeting today for the purpose of starting a study of existing laws on Orphans' courts, or no deal.

Boris Karloff is playing another Indian in "Tap Roots." When I suggested he might get typed in such roles, he answered, "I'll gladly trade monsters for Indians." . . . Charles Bickford has been offered one of the male leads in "Joan of Lorraine," but he, like other actors, is con-sidering the picture carefully. The lengthy shooting schedule means the cast will be out of circulation for at least six months.

Dinah Shore and George Mont-gomery may do a husband-and-wife morning show from their home. Her regular show was cancelled and Dinah will avoid studio audiences until after the baby is born. . . . The John Lunds may be the next fam-ily acting team. She appears set for "Thieves Fall Out" at RKO. A former model, she says her screen name will be Marie Lund.

MANY NEVER SUSPECT CAUSE OF BACKACHES
This Old Treatment Often Brings Happy Relief
Many sufferers relieve nagging backaches quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys. The kidneys are Nature's chief way of tak-ing the excess acids and waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about a pint a day. When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, act-ing up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or sorely passages with smearing and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Even a wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully by millions for over 50 years. Doan's give a happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

Dear Susan Brown

By Caroline Hall

AP Newsfeatures

Chapter 1

Susan rolled a sheet of yellow paper into her typewriter and sat with her hands poised above the keys for only a moment. Copy of the July issue of America Loves, "the nation's newest confession magazine," was due today.

She had already gone through her mail and chosen six letters which she would print and answer in the article. The theme of this month's column on advice to the lovers had been in the back of her mind for quite some time. She began to type:

"Our conception of Love has a great deal to do with the way we face Life, and what we get out of it. No one would be so foolish as to overlook the realities and hazards of modern living. They are with us. They must be met and conquered. But so often it seems, from the thousands of letters that come to my desk, that a great many people have allowed these difficulties to stand in the way of Happiness.

"For many of these restless souls, Love has come to seem like a long, storm-racked road on a cold, dark night.

"My friends, there is nothing elusive about Happiness, nothing complex about Love. They are only a part and parcel of the great miracle which is Life. . . .

Something suspiciously like a snicker made Susan drop her hands from the typewriter keys and look around. John Bates, the staff photographer, whose cynical views on life and love were common office gossip, had slipped up behind her and was reading over her shoulder.

"Ahhh! Love—it is wonderful!" he read in high falsetto, and groaned aloud. "Want me to show you what love is really like, Susie?"

Susan, with an expertness born of several months' practice, was out of her chair and over by the window before John's arms had quite reached her.

"So you don't want to know about love, eh?" he heckled, ignoring her indignant stare. "We-e-I, can't say I blame you. Anyhow, no hard feelings. But it's not picking daisies, my lovely. That's where you're wrong."

"Well?" Susan's brown eyes flashed fire and she lifted her blonde head a trifle higher. "I didn't think it was possible for anybody—even you, John Bates—to be so ill-mannered."

"No? That's too bad, Susie. But you're pretty young yet. You've still got a lot to learn."

"All right. So I haven't lived—so what? And will you stop calling me Susie!"

"All right, Susie—er—pardon me, Miss Brown. Nice-looking outfit you've got on. You should always wear black. It brings out the gold lights in your hair, sort of plays 'em up—if you know what I mean."

"That's very kind of you, I'm sure," returned Susan in the iciest tone she could contrive.

But John Bates was not one to remain in the background for long. "Listen to this, will you?" He began to read aloud from a pink letter:

"All of my friends consider me quite good-looking and are always telling me so. I have been told that I look a lot like Gene Tierney—but of course I don't believe that, though I admit our features are much the same. But I don't think it pays for a girl to believe everything a person tells her, do you, dear Miss Brown? At last I wouldn't want to be that vain. . . ."

"What's wrong with that? It's what most of the lonely-hearts say."

The cameraman scratched his head and pretended to think "Damn it if I know. Bella, as she calls herself, seems to have what it takes. All that—but no boy friend. Maybe what ails her is something her best friends won't tell her. Could be. According to advertising statistics, at least ninety per cent—"

This was entirely too much, Susan decided. She stood up and, with a quick gesture, snatched the letter out of John Bates' hand.

"I've had enough of this nonsense," she flared. "Now you get going, John Bates. Go take your snip pictures, do your own job. I'll take care of these people."

She tossed the offending missive back into the basket marked "finished business." John's eyes, following the movement, caught the penciled sign.

"Finished business," he repeated. "What the heck have you done with the glamorous Bella? How did you finish her off? You didn't kill her, or something, did you? Tch-tch-sch!" He shook his head in commiseration.

The interoffice communication buzzed and, as Susan flipped the switch, Doris, the telephone operator, said impressively:

"Mr. Gellis would like to see you, Miss Brown. In his office, please, at once."

John grinned. "Well, good luck, Susie!" Before the cameraman was out of the door, Susan had reached for her makeup kit and was busy with her powder puff.

Susan grew a little breathless as she pictured how earnestly Gellis' gray eyes would blaze at her and how handsome he would look as he spoke of the wonderful work she had done in the past three months.

"Well, it has been wonderful work," she told herself, her chin at a higher angle. "Even John Bates—who's as stubborn as all get-out—had to admit it's boosting the circulation."

On that happy thought Susan paused at the door bearing the neat gold lettering, "Stephen Gellis, Publisher," and drew a deep breath. She was so thrilled, in fact, that she wondered why she did not float right through the door. It had been such a heavenly three months. All she had to do was to write about the most wonderful topic in the world—Love. She would be a fool not to love the job and the joy of doing it. And surely, she thought, with a wry

WOUNDS WIFE 'BY MISTAKE'

Pittsburgh, June 26 (AP)—The wife of a night club proprietor was shot and seriously wounded in the early pre-dawn hours after the amusement spot was closed today.

County Detective George Brotherton quoted Charley Peyton, 51, as saying he wounded his wife accidentally, mistaking her for an intruder in the dark.

The victim, Mrs. Mary Peyton, 37, smile at her foolish fancy, she would be less than human if she didn't love her boss. Why, he was waiting at his desk right now to express his gratitude for what she had done for America Loves!

She reached out and touched the cool glass of the doorknob, then stared at her hand with startled annoyance. It was trembling even more than when she had turned that same doorknob just three months ago!

Molotov Arrives For Paris Confab

Paris, June 26 (AP)—Russia's V. M. Molotov arrived today for the three-power conferences on American aid to Europe, while British and U. S. representatives reached "broad and general" conclusions over how European recovery can best be tackled.

An authoritative source in London reported that result from British-American talks which have been going on there for several days, with Under Secretary of State William L. Clayton and Ambassador Lewis W. Douglas representing the Washington viewpoint. Prime Minister Attlee reported to the British cabinet on these talks.

Clayton was expected to visit Paris to remain a few days "for consultation," a British informant said. Bevin will fly here tomorrow for the conference of himself, Molotov and France's Georges Bidault on the economic plan proposed by U. S. Secretary of State Marshall.

Washington, June 26 (AP)—Prosecution and defense attorneys said Wed. Congressional immunity has blocked efforts to have Senator Barkley (D-Ky.) and Rep. Buckley (D-N. Y.) testify at the May-Garrison bribe conspiracy trial.

William A. Paisley, special assistant attorney general, said the Justice department has been unable to locate Buckley either here or at his home or office in New York.

MARKETING with Marjorie

Money certainly seems to melt these days (and not from the heat either!) That's why I'm more grateful than ever for the values I find at the A&P... and the quality of everything is always dependable. Marketing there regularly is my pet economy. Try it! And try the money-saving suggestions below, too!

THRIFTY THOUGHTS
To get almost twice as much juice as usual from a lemon, steep it in hot water a few minutes before you squeeze it.
To satisfy big appetites at small cost, choose ANN PAGE FOODS at your A&P. You'll find everything from ready-to-eat main dishes to easy-to-fix desserts in this quality-famous family of products. And when you see the modest prices on all the ANN PAGE foods, you'll understand why they're called "The Thrifty 33."
To freshen stale rolls, sprinkle them with water, wrap in brown paper and warm in a hot oven.

LOTS FOR LITTLE
My favorite day is WOMAN'S DAY—that grand magazine you can get at A&P Stores and nowhere else. It's filled with new recipes, delightful menu suggestions, fashions and movie news, as well as fascinating fiction. I'd call it a bargain at five times the nickel it costs. What's more, WOMAN'S DAY saves me plenty with its budget-stretching ideas. Get a copy at your A&P. You'll love it!

CEREAL SWEETS
The nutty flavor of SUNNY-FIELD WHEAT PUFFS from the A&P is delicious in cookies made like this: Beat 2 egg whites with ¼ tsp. salt till foamy. Add ¾ cup sugar gradually, beating till whites stand in peaks. Beat in ½ cup peanut butter. Fold in 2 cups SUNNY-FIELD WHEAT PUFFS and 2 tps. grated orange rind. Drop by teaspoonsful on cookie sheet. Bake in moderate oven 375° F., about 12 minutes. Makes 3 dozen cookies.

TRUCK MISSED TURN
Pittsburgh, June 26 (AP)—Early morning traffic was tied up at the circle on Ohio River boulevard, at the intersection of the McKees Rocks bridge today when a large truck overturned, police reported.

Earl Kausman, 25, Ashland, Ohio, the driver, said his brakes locked and he missed the turn.

U. S. BACK OF MARSHALL PLAN TO AID EUROPE

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
Washington, June 26 (AP)—The world received assurances today, on the eve of the critical Molotov-Berlin-Bidault economic conference, that the American government is solidly behind Secretary of State Marshall's proposals for European recovery based on self-help.

Diplomatic officials were concerned for a brief period last yesterday that the Paris conference might be considerably upset by some evidence to the contrary due to comments on the Marshall plan by Secretary of the Treasury Snyder.

Snyder himself, however, cleared away this concern by (1) in endorsing the recovery proposal and (2) declaring that his earlier statements "should be nowise interpreted as disagreeing in any respect with the comments made by Secretary Marshall at Harvard."

Marshall first launched his proposal in a speech at Harvard university June 5.

Was a Threat
The possibility of an apparent conflict between the two members of President Truman's cabinet most concerned with foreign financing was regarded here as a potential threat to any real progress in the Paris meeting. The great issue there is Russian cooperation in a joint European recovery program.

Diplomatic authorities say the real appeal of the Marshall plan for Europe to devise some program making more effective use of its own resources for economic recovery is the prospect held out to them of American help in financing such a program until Europe is really on its feet again.

Some European leaders are said to be concerned over how far Congress will go in authorizing such assistance. Hence any evidence that the administration itself might be divided on the question would be regarded abroad as lessening the chances for congressional approval.

This in turn would play into the hands of any elements in Europe which might want to block or hampering the initial effort in economic planning which Marshall has called for.

Not Sure Of Reds
In this connection American officials are by no means certain that Molotov's attendance at the Paris meeting is any proof of a Russian desire to go along on the basis of conditions acceptable to the United States.

What happened in the Snyder incident was this:

The treasury secretary, who is also chairman of the government's National Advisory Council on Foreign Financing held a news conference yesterday at which he was questioned in detail about Marshall's

Harvard proposal.

At one point he was asked: "Don't you understand secretary Marshall's speech to mean that he is inviting them (the foreign nations) to come to us with an application for such relief as is necessary?"

"By no means," Snyder replied. "My interpretation is that he is asking them to take a self inventory and see what they can do for themselves."

A questioner then asked: "And don't you think there is any offer of United States assistance in secretary Marshall's speech on that subject?"

To which Snyder responded: "No more than we have had evidence of all along."

At another point Snyder said his interpretation was that Marshall invited the European nations to "Sit down and see what their problem is. But he didn't say anything about letting the United States know how much they wanted."

Sons Object To Civil War Term

Easton, Pa., June 26 (AP)—Pointing out that the U. S. Constitution does not give power for states to make war upon states, the Sons of the Union Veterans, have passed a resolution objecting to the term "war between states" in referring to the Civil War.

The organization is gathered at Easton in its 81st encampment of Pennsylvania's G.A.R.

In another resolution the group called upon Congress and the Pennsylvania state legislature to proclaim November 19—date of Lincoln's Gettysburg address—as Dedication Day.

They also drafted a resolution requesting that the National Cemetery at Gettysburg, Pa., be returned to the War Department from the Interior Department because supervision by the latter was deemed inefficient.

WAR DEPT. OK'S NATIONAL GUARD TRAINING PLANS

Harrisburg, June 26 (AP)—More than 6,000 officers and men, representing 149 units of the Pennsylvania National Guard, will undergo their first postwar field training at the Indiantown Gap military reservation Aug. 9 to 23. (Gettysburg's Troop A will be among the participating units.)

Brig. Gen. Frank A. Weber, state adjutant general, made the announcement today following war department approval.

The 15-day training will be under the command of Maj. Gen. Edward J. Stackpole, Harrisburg, PNG commander, who said the objective of the program will be "Attainment of a high standard of proficiency in individual basic, technical and tactical subjects."

Units Approved By April 15

Major units to take the field are the 28th Infantry division, commanded by Brig. Gen. Daniel B. Strickler, Lancaster; 51st Anti-Aircraft artillery brigade, headed by Brig. Gen. Charles C. Curtis, Allentown; and the 111th Infantry regimental combat team.

All participating units are those which had requested federal recognition as of April 15, the deadline fixed by the War Department to qualify for the campment.

The men will fire for familiarization the M-1 rifle, 45 calibre sub-machinegun, and carbine. Training

Escape Injury In Landing Mishap

New York, June 26 (AP)—Two Pennsylvanians were aboard a trans-Atlantic Air France Constellation that tipped over on one wing when its right wheels collapsed while landing yesterday at LaGuardia field.

Besides Mrs. Jacqueline German of Jeannette and Peter J. Anthony of Pottsville there were 39 other persons aboard. Quick action by the pilots was credited with saving the occupants of the plane from any injury.

Mrs. German, a French war bride, was returning from a visit with her parents in Paris. She said she was startled by what she described as a "heavy bump" at the landing.

conducted, there will be considerable firing at ground targets with 50 calibre machine guns and 40MM cannon.

Actual field training will cover a period of 92 hours. In addition, specialist schools of 20 hours each will be conducted for all officers and non-commissioned officers attending field training.

All units in the field must be self-sustaining, including preparation and submission of reports and records, operation of mess, provide necessary security, proper receipt, storage and issue of supplies, exercise of unit police, sanitary and disciplinary measures, performance of organizational and field maintenance, and field medical service.

Emmitsburg PLAN REGULAR DISPOSAL OF TOWN GARBAGE

Emmitsburg is to have a regular and efficient method of garbage collection in the future according to plans made by the town council at a meeting Wednesday night. Burgess Thornton Rodgers announced that the necessary arrangements have been made to put the plan into effect immediately.

It was decided to issue a permit to Lloyd A. Wiernman and Walter Benchoff who offered to collect and dispose of the garbage according to the council's recommendations. A fee of thirty cents per week was agreed upon for each family.

The first collection will be on the morning of June 30 and thereafter will be on each Monday, Wednesday and Friday. Collections will begin at 8 a.m. so that all refuse may be removed from the streets as early in the day as possible.

To Improve Alleys

People are asked to place their garbage in containers along the streets in front of their houses for the present, pending arrangements for collections in the alleys later on. It is also urged that wet garbage be kept separate from papers, glass and tin cans to facilitate disposal. All refuse with the exception of ashes will be handled under this plan. Since better facilities for refuse disposal are available, checks will be made to assure that sanitation regulations are being carried out.

At the same meeting, the council discussed plans for improvement of the alleys in town, some of which are in poor condition. Recommendations were made to have them repaired in cases where they are already hard surfaced, and to have grading done in other places where it is needed. Weeds are to be cut regularly to improve appearances and to aid in control of mosquitoes.

Other plans are being tentatively considered for town improvements in the future and will be put into effect as soon as feasible, town officials explained.

To Decide Fate Of 'Career' Burglar

Pittsburgh, June 26 (AP)—Judge G. Malcolm McDonald of Allegheny county court is deliberating whether Millard F. Wright, who underwent brain surgery in an effort to cure criminal tendencies, should stand trial on 10 burglary charges.

The court heard Dr. Yale David Koskoff, prominent brain surgeon, testify yesterday that Wright, a self-styled "career burglar" who has spent more than half his 36 years in prison, has shown "marked improvement" in his personality since the operation.

Dr. Koskoff said Wright is now less moody, and more affable, reasonable and warm-hearted. In "favorable employment and environment," the witness said, he believes Wright probably would "do well."

Wright pleaded not guilty on the grounds he was insane when he robbed the homes. Judge McDonald said he would give his ruling as soon as possible.

Critical Shortage Of Goods Being Eased

Pittsburgh, June 26 (AP)—Some ease in the critical merchandise shortage was reported today with 500 striking teamsters, hired by local merchants, moving goods from local railroad warehouses.

Railroads said, however, that the amount moved was only a "trickle" compared to the backlog piled up in the 26-day-old walkout of about 1,800 AFL-truck drivers asking a 20-cent hourly pay boost.

The western Pennsylvania Motor Carriers' association has offered 15 cents. The union announced six firms with 34 trucks signed new union contracts yesterday, embodying the 20-cent raise. None of them were members of the association.

The AFL Teamsters union granted permission for the hiring of some members to ease the log jam of goods at warehouses.

Tell How To Get Most From Fan

Pittsburgh, June 26 (AP)—If you want to get the most out of your electric fan at night, put it about three feet from the window and point it outdoors.

So say Westinghouse Electric corporation engineers, who declare their investigations prove this method reduces the room temperature as much as 14 degrees.

NEW LABOR LAW CAN STOP COAL STRIKE--A WHILE

By JAMES MARLOW

Washington, June 26 (AP)—The new labor law can stop a coal strike or any big strike—but only for a while.

In the end—when all the machinery set up under the law to stave off a strike is exhausted—workers are free to strike.

Here's an ABC on coal and the new law. Both will be in the news now. Any big strike could be handled the same way.

1. The law's machinery starts with the president. He has to decide whether a big strike will affect national health and safety.

2. If he thinks so, he appoints a special board of inquiry. The board investigates and reports to the president what it has found.

3. If the president still thinks the strike would create a national emergency, he tells the attorney general to act.

4. The attorney general asks a federal court judge to issue a court order—an injunction—to stop the strike.

5. When, and if, the injunction is issued, the union and the employer are supposed to get together to try to reach an agreement.

6. While the union-employer talks go on, the president calls back his special board of inquiry for further investigation.

7. The board must report back to the president within 60 days after the injunction is granted.

8. In its report the board must say what the latest offer of the employer was, such as a wage increase. The president can make the report of the board public.

9. Then the National Labor Relations Board (NLRB), which administers the law, steps in. It conducts a vote in all the plants where the union members work.

10. The workers vote on whether to accept the employer's last offer or to follow the judgment of their leaders in rejecting it.

11. Once NLRB announces the result of the vote—even though it means a strike through not accepting the offer—the attorney general must ask the court to end the injunction against a strike.

12. That leaves the union free to strike. But the president must take one more step. He must report to Congress on the whole situation.

13. Then it's up to Congress either to do nothing, and let the strike occur, or pass a special law to prevent the strike.

If it passes such a law there's this question: Can any law compel people to work if they don't want to?

Perhaps 100 or more days will have elapsed between the time the president first set up the special inquiry board and when he turned the case over to Congress.

So the strike will have been delayed that long unless Congress in the end tries to pass a law to stop it altogether.

Allowed Vacation

As to the coal case: The government seized the mines a year ago when John L. Lewis and the mine owners couldn't agree on a contract. The government made a contract with Lewis. It had seized the mines and made the contract under a wartime law.

But the law—and the contract with it—expire June 30. On July 1 the government must turn the mines back to the owners.

Under the government contract, the miners are allowed a 10-day vacation, starting June 27. They're due back July 8.

They start out while the government has the mines and are due to return when the owners have them.

Many Questions

But will they return July 8 if,

by that time, the owners have not made a contract with Lewis? Probably not. In staying away they'll deny they're on strike. They'll say they can't work without a contract.

The president won't be able to tell till July 8 whether the country faces a coal strike. If he then starts the new law's machinery working the coal strike may be delayed until fall, maybe.

If the miners stay away after July 8, the No. 1 problem will be: Can any injunction against a strike stop them from staying away?

RANK AND FILE GET MORE SAY UNDER NEW LAW

By JAMES MARLOW
Washington, June 26 (AP)—If you're a union member, what does the new labor law do for you?

Here are the main things:
1. In the first place, if you're about to join a union and you think the union's fee for joining is too high, you may be able to get it lowered. How?

By complaining to the National Labor Relations Board (NLRB), the government agency which carries out the law.
The board must investigate. It will decide whether the fee is too high.

2. A union can't make you pay contributions for political purposes, such as supporting a candidate or party.

3. Suppose you're dissatisfied with your union and don't want it to represent you any more. What can you do?

If at least 30 per cent of the union members feel that way, they can ask NLRB to hold an election. It must be held.

Can Throw Union Out
If a majority of the union members—not just 30 per cent—vote not to have that union represent them, it's out.

But the 30 per cent can ask for the vote only when the union's contract with the boss expires, not while it's in existence.

Until now only the union—meaning the union officials—could ask NLRB to hold a vote. The only time they asked was:

After they'd gone into a plant, organized it, and felt a majority of the workers would vote for the union to represent them.

If they so voted, the union represented them.

4. Sincere union members—and troublemakers, too—now can take a stronger part in union affairs without fear of being fired if they're kicked out.

Here's an explanation:

There's a thing called the union shop. There everyone—non-union people already working and non-union people hired later—must join the union within a certain time.

Must Keep Up Dues

Once in, they must stay in. If they quit, the boss must fire them. That was true under the old law and it's still true under the new. But under the old law if a union expelled a man for any reason—such as quarreling with union officials—the boss had to fire him.

Under the new law the boss doesn't have to fire a man expelled by a union for any reason except not paying his dues or initiation fee.

But—
Suppose you're working in a place which already has a contract that has a year to run? The new law doesn't change anything in that case.

The new law leaves unchanged union shop contracts now in existence. But any such contract signed after August 22 must conform to the new law.

(Aug. 22 in 60 days from June 23, when the new law was passed.)

So if you're working in a union shop where the contract—say—has a year to run and you're expelled from the union for any cause, the boss must fire you.

(The new law bans closed shops where everyone working or later hired must be a union member.

(But just in the case of union shops, closed shop contracts now in effect can run unaffected by the new law but for no longer than a year.)

(No closed shop contract can be signed after August 22.)

4. Suppose you're a non-union man but work in a shop where a majority of the workers belong to a union. Must you join?

Only if:
1. The union can get the boss to agree to a union shop contract, and

2. A majority of all the workers in the plant vote for a union shop. Under the old law there could be a union shop if only a majority of those present at voting time wanted it.

NO REPORTS OF SCHOOLS USING NEW TAX BILL

Harrisburg, June 26 (AP)—Although legislation broadening the taxing powers of school districts and other local bodies is pending, Pennsylvania school boards continued today to look to real estate and per capita taxes for increased revenue for the 1947-48 school term.

"I have not heard of any district that is considering adopting the new taxes at this time," commented P. O. Van Ness, secretary of the Pennsylvania State School Directors association, adding that boards which held off budget making pending action on school legislation are now rushing completion of fiscal plans.

The legislature established a new $1,950 to $3,400 teacher pay scale outside Philadelphia and Pittsburgh—it is awaiting action by Gov. James H. Duff—and state school authorities have estimated changes in mandated increments will add $4,000,000 to $5,000,000 to local school costs. The state's share was boosted by $48,000,000.

The tax broadening measure, also awaiting gubernatorial approval, would permit local taxes on wages, income, sales, amusements and any other forms of property or transactions not taxed by the Commonwealth.

Up to the present, school boards could only raise money for education to supplement state grants by taxes on real estate and $1 to $5 per capita levies. The state school code requires districts to turn over lists of taxpayers and amounts due to tax collectors by July 6.

Many of the state's 2,500 school boards held off budget action—school fiscal programs are usually completed in April and May—until the new pay scale and increases in state subsidies was approved by the legislature.

The school pay plan also would permit school authorities to revise their budgets for the 1947-48 fiscal year—it begins July 1—to appropriate new funds for salaries, while another bill signed into law by the governor this week would allow reopening of school budgets to increase allocations for teacher salaries from unexpended balances, unappropriated revenues or temporary loans.

Explaining the proposed expansion of local taxing powers was designed to help school districts meet increased education costs, Gov. James H. Duff said "it certainly appears to me to be the better American way to give the power to tax at home where they know what they are doing rather than to give cash handouts at Harrisburg where you do not know the needs of local communities."

"In America," he added, "if we cannot trust local officials and local communities to do the fair thing where the money is to be spent, then that means that the whole American system is broken down because that is what it is based upon."

The tax broadening measure would permit local taxing bodies, with the exception of counties and second class townships, to levy on wages, income, sales, amusements or any other forms of property or transactions not now taxed by the Commonwealth.

The strength of the cadet corps at West Point was raised from 1,960 to 2,496 in 1942.

OTTUMWA SHORT ON DEEP WATER

Washington, June 26 (AP)—Folks out in Ottumwa, Ia.—who have been flooded three times in recent weeks—may be interested in knowing that the navy is going to shut down its station there because of a lack of "deep water."

Secretary of the Navy Forrestal told a Senate Appropriations committee about it.

Forrestal said the navy was planning to set up a school at Del Monte, Calif., in a big hotel which has been offered together with several hundred acres of land for $2,500,000.

Senator Gurney (R-SD) wondered why the navy was buying a new location when it owned a good one at Ottumwa.

"I realize that it is up north, and there is snow, and no palm trees, but it is a beautiful installation, and the navy is going to abandon it," Gurney said.

Forrestal said that the navy school must have "deep water," an even year-around climate, and a "sufficient remoteness from large centers." He added that the Ottumwa station was not "abandoned" but "inactivated" as of August 1 and its activities shifted to Pensacola, Fla.

There were two per cent fewer cows on U. S. farms in 1947 than in 1946, but the 1947 cows supplied three per cent more milk.

Midget Auto Driver Dies Of Injuries

Allentown, Pa., June 26 (AP)—Harry A. (Hap) Pierson, 33-year-old Philadelphia midget auto race driver, died Tuesday night in Sacred Heart hospital of injuries received in a crash at Dorney Park speedway here five days ago.

Pierson, driving in a field of eight, apparently lost control of his car and was thrown to the concrete track. The vehicle turned over and landed on top of him. He suffered a depressed fracture of the skull, severe lacerations of the head and body. He never regained consciousness.

The first archeological evidences of the wheel date back to Mesopotamian city cultures.
